

ECM Communications Port

The ECM Communications Port allows service personnel to get readings from the engine control module (ECM). It is mounted in the cab, on the front left lower panel. See Figure 1.

This connector is a data port connector designed to allow the on-board Controller Area Network (CAN) system to communicate with a diagnostic computer.

Figure 1 ECM Communications Port

INTENTIONALLY LEFT BLANK