

ECM Communications Port

The ECM Communications Port allows service personnel to get readings from the engine control module (ECM). It is mounted in the cab, on the rear wall, to the right of the operator's seat. See Figure 1.

This connector is a data port connector designed to allow the on-board Controller Area Network (CAN) system to communicate with a diagnostic computer.

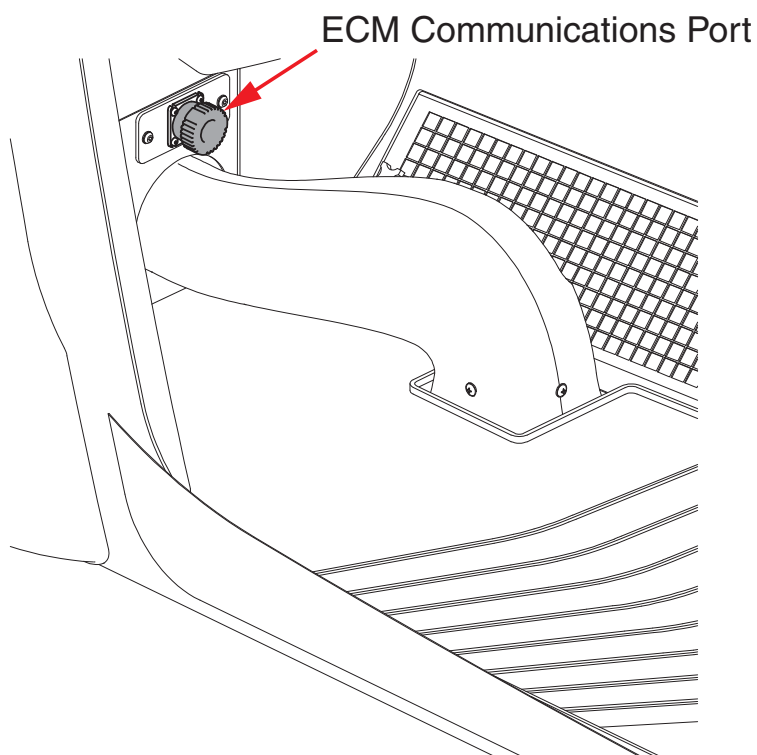

Figure 1 ECM Communications Port

INTENTIONALLY LEFT BLANK